1. WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

This document contains terms for your business facilities as described in your Letter of Offer. You should read this document with the other documents that are part of your Agreement with us.

Capitalised words and phrases in this document have special meanings. You can find their meanings in the attached Schedule 1 unless otherwise defined in this document.

2. OUR AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE FACILITIES

ANZ agrees to provide your Facilities on the terms of your Agreement. You agree, in return, to comply with those terms.

3. WHAT YOU AGREE TO PAY

3.1 Interest

You must pay interest on:

- the principal amount of your Facilities;
- any amount that you have agreed to add to the principal amount of a Facility. This may include interest (which means you pay interest on interest), fees and other charges; and
- any informal overdraft amount.

Your Letter of Offer and your Specific Conditions of Use contain further details.

3.2 Fees and other charges

You must pay agreed fees and other charges. These fees and other charges are in:

- your Letter of Offer;
- each Specific Conditions of Use;
- the 'ANZ Business Banking Finance Fees and Charges' booklet;
- the 'ANZ Business Banking General Service Fees and Charges' booklet; and
- the 'ANZ Business Banking Transaction Accounts Fees and Charges' booklet but only for Facilities attached to a transaction account. For example, an overdraft facility.

Information on ANZ's standard fees and other charges is available on request.

3.3 Principal

You must repay the principal amount of your Facilities. Your Letter of Offer and your Specific Conditions of Use contain further details.

3.4 Early repayment costs

When ANZ provides you with a fixed interest rate on your Facility we assume that there will be no changes to the Facility during its Fixed Rate Term. If any of the following events, referred to as Early Repayment Events, occurs then our assumption will no longer be true:

- you make an early repayment of all or part of a Facility during its Fixed Rate Term;
- ANZ requires you to make an early repayment of all or part of a Facility during its Fixed Rate Term (for example, in exercise of our Default Rights);
- ANZ agrees to change your Fixed Rate Term or to switch your Facility to another fixed interest rate or to a variable interest rate before the end of its Fixed Rate Term; or
- ANZ agrees to make certain other changes to your Facility before the end of its Fixed Rate Term.

As a result you may be required to pay us an early repayment cost.

The applicable Specific Conditions of Use contain further details on this cost. Early repayment costs can be significant. You should contact us for an estimate or if you have any questions.

3.5 Other amounts

You must pay any other amount owing under your Agreement. For example, if ANZ has paid a claim under a bank guarantee (also known as an indemnity guarantee) or a letter of credit issued under your Facilities, then you owe us the amount claimed. Your Letter of Offer and the applicable Specific Conditions of Use contain further details.

3.6 Costs or losses

You agree to pay or reimburse ANZ, on demand, for all Costs or losses that we reasonably incur or suffer when:

- we agree any documents between you or a Security Provider and us;
- you or a Security Provider breach your obligations;
- we agree to a change to your Agreement or to a Security;
- an Event of Default occurs;
- we seek to protect or enforce our rights;
- you have agreed to a valuation of any property subject to a Security; or
- you have agreed to us appointing an independent accountant or other expert.

You do not need to pay or reimburse us under this section to the extent that the Cost or loss arises from negligence, fraud or wilful default by ANZ or its officers, employees, contractors or agents or any receiver appointed by ANZ.

4. MAKING PAYMENTS

4.1 How do you make a payment to us?

You may make a payment to your loan account by:

- direct loan payment from an ANZ account;
- periodical payment from an ANZ account;
- deposit over the counter at an ANZ branch;
- using an ANZ ATM, ANZ Phone Banking, ANZ Internet Banking, ANZ Internet Banking for Business or ANZ Mobile Banking;
- electronic transfer from an account with another financial institution; or
- any other method of payment that we may allow.

You must pay us using the methods in the 'ANZ Business Banking Transaction Accounts Terms and Conditions' booklet for any Facilities attached to a transaction account.

4.2 When do we treat you as making a payment?

We will treat you as having made a payment to your loan account when we apply it to your account. The payment will be applied in line with our regular banking practice for such payments.

If you pay by 9:45pm Melbourne time using an ANZ ATM, ANZ Phone Banking, ANZ Internet Banking, ANZ Internet Banking for Business or ANZ Mobile Banking, ANZ will generally apply that payment to your account as at the date that you make it.

If you pay by cheque, allow three to seven working days for the payment to clear and be applied to your account.

If you pay from an account with another financial institution, there may be a delay between:

- when the other financial institution processes the transaction as a payment; and
- when we apply it to your account.

4.3 When can ANZ adjust your account?

ANZ may adjust your account to accurately reflect your and our legal obligations. For example, we may make an adjustment if an error occurs or a cheque is dishonoured or to reflect the date at which we apply an amount to your account.

If we receive a message through the New Payments Platform that a payment will be made to your account, we may treat the payment as made before we receive it. If the payment is not received for any reason, we can reverse the transaction. The credit and debit will be shown on your statement.

We may also make related adjustments to the balance of your account. For example, we may adjust interest on your account.

4.4 Must payments be in Australian dollars?

Yes, you must make each payment to us in Australian dollars, unless we have agreed a different currency. If we agree to a payment in a different currency from Australian dollars, we will convert the currency using our standard procedures.

4.5 Must payments be free from set-off or deduction?

Yes, you must make each payment to us without set-off, counterclaim or deduction, unless required by law. If a law requires you to make a deduction, you must pay us an extra amount when the payment is due. The total amount we receive, including the extra amount, must be the same as if no deduction had been made.

4.6 ANZ can debit amounts payable by you

You authorise us to debit any amount payable by you under your Agreement to your loan account(s) or to any other account nominated by you. These amounts may include interest, fees, other charges and costs. We may apply the amount to your account as at the date we debit it or the date it is due.

4.7 What happens if an amount payable would be due on a non-Business Day?

If a repayment amount or other amount payable by you would be due on the 29th, 30th or 31st of a month and that month does not contain that date, then it is due on the last day of that month.

In any case, if a repayment amount would be due on a non-Business Day, then it is due on the next Business Day.

The other terms of your Agreement may have rules that apply where another amount payable by you (including interest, fees and other charges) would be due on a non-Business Day.

4.8 ANZ has set-off and consolidation rights

We may combine or apply any credit balance in any of your accounts towards payment of money you owe us under your Agreement. We may also apply any other amount available to us by way of set-off, lien or counterclaim. We will tell you in writing if we do these things. You authorise us to do anything which is necessary for us to do these things.

5. YOUR AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE INFORMATION

You agree to provide ANZ with all information that we ask for under this section. You agree to do this within 30 days of us asking for it.

5.1 Your agreement to provide financial information

ANZ may ask you to provide financial information about a Customer or a Security Provider. We may also ask you to have the financial information certified as showing a true and fair view. Examples of financial information that we may ask for are any or all of:

- statements of financial position;
- annual report, balance sheets, income statements and cash-flow statements;
- running balance account statements;
- documents that a company must prepare under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth); and
- directors' or auditors' reports.

If you fail to provide us with any financial information within 30 days of us asking for it, it will be an Event of Default.

If a Customer or a Security Provider is a company, you will ensure that any financial information delivered to ANZ about it complies with GAAP (except as disclosed in the information) and with all applicable Australian laws.

GAAP means generally accepted accounting principles and practices in Australia, which are consistently applied.

5.2 Your agreement to provide other information

You agree to provide any other information that we reasonably require from time to time. This includes any information required to comply with any laws, such as AML-CTF and Sanctions Laws and Policies.

If a Customer or a Security Provider is a public company, you agree to give us a copy of any information given to its shareholders or to a stock exchange. You must give us the information immediately after it is given to them.

6. REVIEW EVENTS

6.1 What is a Review Event?

ANZ considers a number of factors when providing you with a Facility. Certain events may materially increase the credit risk in providing a Facility to you. Each of the following is such an event and will be a Review Event, as will anything else that you agree with us is a Review Event.

(a) Security Provider requests release

A Security Provider requests a release from its obligations under any Security it has provided for your Facilities.

(b) Demand under a bank guarantee

There is a demand under a bank guarantee or a letter of credit that ANZ has issued under your Facilities or a Security Provider's facilities.

(c) Failure to pay someone other than ANZ

You fail to pay on time an amount that is due and payable to someone other than us, and in ANZ's reasonable opinion, the failure to pay materially increases the risk to ANZ that you will not repay us.

(d) Finance Document becomes void

A material provision of a Finance Document (or the Finance Document itself) is or becomes void, voidable, illegal, invalid or unenforceable.

(e) Breaches of obligations

A Customer or a Security Provider breaches an obligation under a Finance Document where the breach is not an Event of Default, and either:

- the breach cannot be fixed; or
- the breach can be fixed, and we give you a written notice requiring you to fix it, and 30 days later it is still not fixed.

6.2 What happens following a Review Event?

- (a) If a Review Event under section 6.1(a) occurs, we may give you a written notice to say that we will exercise our Review Rights. Our Review Rights are set out below.

- (b) If any other Review Event occurs, we may notify you that your Facilities are under review. You agree that for a period of 30 days from receipt of that notice you will consult with us with a view to resolving the Review Event(s) to both your and our satisfaction.
- (c) If we are unable to agree within the 30 day review consultation period and the Review Event continues then we may give you a written notice requesting that you do one or more of the following:
- provide us additional Security;
  - pay some or all Outstanding Money for your Facilities;
  - agree to comply with additional undertakings (for example, an undertaking that you will not incur any additional debt).

We will only request that you do something under this section 6.2(c) if we consider that the action is proportionate to the circumstances giving rise to the relevant Review Event.

- (d) You will have a period of 60 days to comply with the terms of the notice. If you do not comply we may exercise our Review Rights which are set out below. We will give you a written notice if we exercise our Review Rights.

6.3 What are ANZ's Review Rights?

When your Agreement says we may exercise our Review Rights, then we may do one or more of the following things, called Review Rights:

- (a) withdraw or reduce an interest or margin concession that may apply to your Facilities;
- (b) increase the interest rate, or the margin forming part of the interest rate, on your Facilities;
- (c) replace an index or base rate with a different index or base rate; or
- (d) cancel any undrawn amount available under your Facilities.

We will only exercise our Review Rights if we consider that the right is proportionate to the circumstances giving rise to the relevant Review Event.

6.4 What are your rights following a Review Event?

If we notify you that we are exercising our Review Rights or we notify you that you need to do something under section 6.2(c), you may cancel your Facilities by giving us written notice of your intention to cancel. If you give us that notice, you must:

- (a) pay all Outstanding Money for your Facilities; and
- (b) comply with any remaining obligations under each Finance Document (for example, returning the original of any outstanding bank guarantees or letters of credit that we have issued).

7. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

7.1 What is an Event of Default?

Certain events may affect our ability to provide or continue to provide you with the Facilities. Each of the following is such an event and will be an Event of Default, as will anything else that you agree with us is an Event of Default.

(a) Failure to pay

A Customer fails to pay ANZ an amount owed to it under a Facility within two Business Days of its due date.

(b) Material misrepresentation

A representation or statement made or any information given to us, in each case, by a Customer or Security Provider regarding a Facility, is materially incorrect or misleading when made or given.

(c) Illegal activities

A statutory or law enforcement authority notifies us of a Customer's or Security Provider's involvement in an illegal activity.

(d) Insolvency or bankruptcy

A Customer or Security Provider goes into administration, liquidation, receivership or commits an act of bankruptcy.

(e) Assets repossessed or seized

A person repossesses or seizes all or a material part of the property of a Customer or Security Provider, or obtains a judgment against a Customer or Security Provider allowing them to repossess or seize such property.

(f) Unauthorised asset dealings

A Customer, Security Provider or any other person deals with any asset in breach of the terms of a Finance Document (unless ANZ has consented to the proposed dealing) and the Credit Risk Condition applies. Examples of 'deals with' are sale of an asset, leasing it, mortgaging it or lodging a caveat against it.

(g) Change in status, capacity or composition

There is a change in a Customer or Security Provider's legal status, in the capacity in which it enters into any arrangement with us (such as, for an individual, mental incapacity or death) or in its composition (such as a change in the partners making up a partnership). And, in each case, ANZ has not given its prior written consent.

(h) Loss of business licence

A Customer loses a licence or permit that it needs to conduct or operate its business and the Credit Risk Condition applies.

(i) Failure to provide financial information or maintain insurance

A Customer or Security Provider fails to provide any financial information by the date that we have asked for it, or fails to maintain any insurance that is required under a Finance Document.

(j) Change in ownership

A material change in the direct or indirect ownership or control of a Customer or Security Provider occurs and ANZ has not given its prior written consent (which we will not unreasonably withhold).

(k) Misuse of funds

Funds provided under a Facility are used for a non-approved purpose and the Credit Risk Condition applies.

In this section, Credit Risk Condition means that ANZ, acting fairly and reasonably, has the view that because of the event it is unlikely to be able to recover all amounts that a Customer or Security Provider owes it.

7.2 What happens following an Event of Default?

- (a) If an Event of Default occurs under section 7.1(a), (b), (c), (e), (f) or (g), we may exercise our Default Rights. If an Event of Default occurs under section 7.1(d), we may exercise our Default Rights but in some cases our rights may be restricted by law.
- (b) If an Event of Default occurs under section 7.1(h), (i), (j) or (k), we may exercise our Default Rights, but only if we have given you written notice to fix the Event of Default and you have not fixed it within 30 days of receiving our notice.
- (c) If anything else occurs that you have agreed with us is an Event of Default, we may exercise our Default Rights.

7.3 What are ANZ's Default Rights?

When your Agreement says we may exercise our Default Rights, then we can do any one or more of the following things, called Default Rights;

- (a) demand that you pay all or part of the Outstanding Money for your Facilities. If we do this, our demand will tell you the date by which you must pay. You must pay by that date;
- (b) change any term of your Agreement, cancel any Facility or your Agreement;
- (c) suspend or not perform any of our obligations under your Agreement;
- (d) demand the immediate return of all original bank guarantees or letters of credit that we have issued, or require you to provide us with enough cash to cover all outstanding bank guarantees or letters of credit. If we do this, you must immediately pay ANZ the requested cash cover on the terms specified by ANZ, unless you have returned all original bank guarantees or letters of credit;

- (e) take action under any Security. For example, we may take possession of any secured property or sell it or appoint a receiver to do so;
- (f) sue you for all or part of the Outstanding Money for your Facilities;
- (g) appoint independent accountants or other experts to review and report to us on the affairs, financial condition and business of a Customer or Security Provider. You must co-operate fully to ensure the review and report can be carried out promptly, completely and accurately. This includes making sure that each Security Provider co-operates; or
- (h) do anything else that we have agreed with you or that is allowed under the law.

When we exercise our Default Rights, if any applicable laws or industry codes (such as the Banking Code of Practice) require a minimum notice period or a particular delivery method, then we will use the method and give you at least the notice they require. For example, we will give you at least 30 days' notice before you have to pay all or part of the Outstanding Money for your Facilities, or before we exercise our Default Rights under section 7.3(e), unless we need to give you shorter notice because:

- we believe it is necessary for us to avoid, or reduce, an increase in our credit risk or our loss; or
- you are insolvent, or go into bankruptcy, administration or another insolvency process or creditor enforcement.

8. CHANGES TO THE TERMS OF YOUR AGREEMENT

Sometimes we may need to change the terms of your Agreement. The tables in sections 8.1 and 8.2 below set out the changes that we can make from time to time. The tables also set out how and when we will notify you of these changes. Each table is subject to the following.

- If any applicable laws or industry codes (such as the Banking Code of Practice) require a minimum notice period or a particular delivery method, then we will use that method and give you at least the notice they require.

- As long as we are not in conflict with those laws or industry codes, we may also give you less notice than specified in the table if we believe this is necessary for us to avoid, or reduce, a material increase in our credit risk or our loss.

In a table, a reference to notice 'in writing' includes any of the electronic methods allowed by your Agreement (see section 10 below).

8.1 Changes to fees, interest and payments

- (a) The table below sets out changes that can apply to all or a class of customers for a product, or to a class of customers like you.

Types of changes ANZ can make	Method of notice	Minimum number of days' notice of the change
Change a variable interest rate, or an index or base rate forming part of an interest rate	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	Day of change, or after day of change if a variable interest rate is determined by reference to an external reference rate (for example the bank bill swap rate) and the change is to that rate.

Types of changes ANZ can make	Method of notice	Minimum number of days' notice of the change
Change a margin forming part of an interest rate	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days, or less if favourable to you
Change how we calculate interest	In writing	30 days
Change the frequency with which interest is debited or credited	In writing	30 days
Introduce a new fee or charge (other than a government fee or charge)	In writing	30 days
Change an existing fee or charge (other than a government fee or charge)	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days, or less if favourable to you
Change how we calculate your fees or charges, or the frequency of, or payment date for, your fees or charges (other than a government fee or charge)	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days

Types of changes ANZ can make	Method of notice	Minimum number of days' notice of the change
Change the name of an index or base rate, or replace an index or base rate with a different index or base rate	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days
Change our available payment methods	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days
Change how we calculate your repayments, or the amount of, frequency of, or payment date for, your repayments	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days, or less if favourable to you
Introduce or change a government fee or charge	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	Day of change (unless published by a government, government agency or representative body)

(b) The table below sets out changes that can be made for any individual Customer.

Types of changes ANZ can make	Method of notice	Minimum number of days' notice of the change
Change how we calculate your repayments, or the amount of, frequency of, or payment date for, your repayments to ensure that a Facility is repaid as intended over the relevant term	In writing	30 days, or less if favourable to you
Changes that are administrative or correct a mistake, inconsistency or omission	In writing	30 days

8.2 Changes to other terms

The table below sets out changes that can apply to all or a class of customers for a product, or to a class of customers like you.

Types of changes ANZ can make	Method of notice	Minimum number of days' notice of the change
Changes reflecting our business, communication or technological systems or processes	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days, or less if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• favourable to you; or</li> <li>• we believe doing so is necessary for us to avoid, or to reduce, a material increase in our credit risk or our loss</li> </ul>
Changes to comply with any law or any Change in Law, or any decision, recommendation, regulatory guidance or standard of any court, tribunal, ombudsman service, regulator, or any other similar body
Changes that, in our reasonable opinion, are required to protect any person from the risk of fraudulent or illegal activity
Changes to add, change or remove any of your discounts, benefits or concessions

Types of changes ANZ can make	Method of notice	Minimum number of days' notice of the change
Changes to simplify the terms of your Agreement	In writing or by advertising in the local or national media	30 days, or less if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• favourable to you; or</li> <li>• we believe doing so is necessary for us to avoid, or to reduce, a material increase in our credit risk or our loss</li> </ul>
Changes to reflect product changes or improvements or to ensure that the terms of your Agreement are consistent with our operational processes
Changes to discontinue or replace a product, and for this purpose we may change your product to a different product with similar features to the discontinued or replaced product
Changes that are beneficial to you
Changes that reflect current industry or market practice or conditions

8.3 What are your rights if we change the terms of your Agreement?

If we notify you of a change to the terms of your Agreement, you may cancel your Facilities by giving us written notice of your intention to cancel. If you give us that notice, you must:

- (a) pay all Outstanding Money for your Facilities; and
- (b) comply with any remaining obligations under each Finance Document (for example, returning the original of any outstanding bank guarantees or letters of credit that we have issued).

9. ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND SANCTIONS

ANZ is not obliged to do or omit to do anything, and may cancel your Facilities or your Agreement, if we suspect that:

- (a) your Agreement may breach any AML-CTF and Sanctions Laws and Policies;
- (b) any action you ask or instruct us to take may breach any AML-CTF and Sanctions Laws and Policies;
- (c) any dealing by us with a Customer or Security Provider may breach any AML-CTF and Sanctions Laws and Policies; or
- (d) the proceeds of your Facilities or any other benefit obtained from your Facilities is or may be used to make or help in making any payment in breach of any AML-CTF and Sanctions Laws and Policies.

If we notify you that we intend to cancel your Facilities or your Agreement because we suspect any of the above then you must pay us all Outstanding Money for your Facilities within 120 days, or any shorter period we tell you so as to comply with the AML-CTF and Sanctions Laws and Policies.

10. FORMAL COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN US ARE CALLED NOTICES

Formal communications between us are called notices. They can include statements and other documents.

10.1 Who can give a notice?

If we give you a payment demand notice, it can be given by a bank manager, bank officer, our lawyer or any agent authorised by us. We do not need to sign any notice that we give you, unless the law requires it.

If you give us a notice, it must be signed by you or your Authorised Person.

10.2 How is a notice given?

Either of us may give the other a notice by leaving it at, or posting it to, the relevant address in your Letter of Offer. If an updated address has been notified, then it will be the last notified updated address.

We may also give you any notice personally. Or, unless prohibited by law, we may give it to you by electronic methods.

Electronic methods may mean us sending a notice to your Electronic Address. Your Electronic Address includes:

- your email address or mobile telephone number as shown on our records;
- SecureMail in ANZ Internet Banking or ANZ Internet Banking for Business; or
- a notification in ANZ Mobile Banking.

It may also mean us publishing it on our website or in ANZ Internet Banking or ANZ Internet Banking for Business and then giving you another notice by any method above telling you that it is available.

10.3 When is a notice taken to be received?

A notice will be taken to be received:

- when left at an address;
- seven days after posting it; or
- the day after it reaches the service provider or the host of your Electronic Address.

If the notice tells you that another notice is published on our website or in ANZ Internet Banking or ANZ Internet

Banking for Business, the other notice will be taken to be received at the same time.

10.4 Instructions you give us

If you or your Authorised Person give us oral or written instructions in relation to your Agreement then we may act on those instructions.

When more than one person is named as a borrower or customer (such as where you are joint borrowers or a partnership), any one of you may ask us to change the account authority so that all borrowers or customers must approve any future withdrawals, or drawings, including redraws.

11. LEGAL RULES

11.1 What legal rights do you and ANZ have?

As well as rights under your Agreement, we both have all rights that the law gives us.

11.2 How will ANZ waive any of its rights?

Any right of ANZ will only be waived if ANZ provides you with written notice waiving that right.

11.3 Some obligations will continue after your Facilities are cancelled

You are still required to pay our Costs and to compensate us for any losses we may have suffered, as set out in your Agreement, even after your Facilities end or are cancelled.

11.4 Evidence of amounts including how much you owe us

If we give you a written decision about any amount, including how much you owe us at any time, that decision is conclusive, unless there has been an obvious error.

11.5 Your consent to us disclosing information

Unless prohibited by law, we may provide any information that you have given us to:

- (a) someone who is or may become a Security Provider;

- (b) someone who is or may become an assignee, transferee, sub-participant or a party to a securitisation (or similar arrangement) with ANZ;
- (c) any person if required by law, court order or by any applicable judicial, governmental or other regulatory authority;
- (d) a ratings agency; or
- (e) any person referred to in section 4 of Schedule 2.

11.6 What happens if a provision of your Agreement is unenforceable?

If a provision of your Agreement is prohibited or unenforceable, then it is only ineffective to the extent that it is prohibited or unenforceable. This does not invalidate any other provision of your Agreement.

11.7 Can you assign or transfer your interest in your Agreement?

You may not assign or transfer all or any part of your rights or obligations under your Agreement or any Finance Document without our written consent.

11.8 Can ANZ assign or transfer its interest in your Agreement?

We may assign or transfer all or any part of our rights or obligations under your Agreement or any Finance Document without your consent.

11.9 What happens if there is an inconsistency of terms within your Agreement?

- (a) If there is an inconsistency between your Letter of Offer and another document forming part of your Agreement, then the Letter of Offer will prevail.
- (b) If there is an inconsistency between this document or the 'ANZ Business Banking Finance Fees and Charges' booklet and the Specific Conditions of Use, then the Specific Conditions of Use will prevail.
- (c) If there is an inconsistency between your Agreement and a Security, your Agreement will prevail.

11.10 GST

Terms used in this section have the same meaning as those defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (the GST Act), unless provided otherwise.

If any supply made to you by ANZ under or in connection with your Agreement is subject to GST, ANZ may:

- increase the consideration otherwise provided for the supply by the amount of that GST; and
- recover such additional amount from you or the party liable for payment of the consideration.

This section does not apply to the extent that the consideration is expressly agreed to be GST inclusive.

If you are required to reimburse us for any costs, the amount must be reduced to the extent that we are entitled to claim an input tax credit in respect of those costs.

No payment of any amount in respect of GST is required until we have provided a tax invoice or adjustment note, as the case may be, to you. We must provide a tax invoice or adjustment note to you as required by the GST Act.

Any reference in your Agreement to fee, price, value, sales, revenue, or similar amount will be exclusive of GST, unless and to the extent that the amount is expressly agreed to be GST inclusive.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

- (a) Your Letter of Offer will specify a particular ANZ office. Your Agreement will be governed by the law in force in the place where that office is located.
- (b) If there is a dispute about your Agreement, then we and you agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts that have jurisdiction under that law.

13. OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND FURTHER READING

13.1 Where to find ANZ rates

If a variable interest rate applies to any of your Facilities then this rate may vary from time to time. You can obtain details of ANZ's current variable interest rates at anz.com/interest-rates.

If a fixed interest rate applies to any of your Facilities then this rate will be set out in your Letter of Offer.

Information on your current interest rates is available on request. Please call ANZ or come into any ANZ branch and we can confirm your rate for you.

13.2 ANZ's business banking transaction account terms and conditions may apply to you

For a Facility attached to a transaction account, your Agreement sets out the credit related terms of the Facility. Other terms relating to the transaction account to which the Facility is attached are set out in:

- the 'ANZ Business Banking Transaction Accounts Terms and Conditions' booklet (anz.com/business-transaction-account-terms-pdf); and
- the 'ANZ Business Banking Transaction Accounts Fees and Charges' booklet (anz.com/business-transaction-account-fees-pdf).

13.3 Protecting your privacy and your personal information

ANZ will collect and use information about you during the course of your relationship with us. We explain in Schedule 2 when and how ANZ may collect, use and disclose this information.

It is important that all information that we hold about you is up to date. You must let us know when any information you have given us has changed.

ANZ also has a duty of confidentiality under the Privacy Act, the Banking Code of Practice and at law.

13.4 ANZ's electronic banking conditions of use may apply to you

The terms of ANZ's Electronic Banking Conditions of Use are incorporated by reference into this document. You can get a copy at anz.com/business-EBCU.

ANZ's Electronic Banking Conditions of Use include the PayID Conditions which govern how you may create a PayID and link it to your loan account. A PayID is a smart address used to receive payments through the New Payments Platform instead of using your account number and BSB.

13.5 ANZ has adopted the Banking Code of Practice

If you are an individual or small business (as defined in the Banking Code of Practice) ANZ is bound by the Banking Code of Practice when it provides banking services to you.

The Banking Code of Practice means the relevant version of the industry code published from time to time by the Australian Banking Association as it applies to ANZ.

13.6 Statements of Account

We will make your statements for your Facilities available as set out in your applicable Specific Conditions of Use and we may do so electronically. You can learn more at anz.com.

It is your responsibility to check your statements to make sure that they are correct. If you believe there are any errors or you have any other concerns you must contact ANZ as soon as possible.

13.7 What happens if there is a disruption to our services?

ANZ may experience a disruption to the banking services that it provides you. You can get further details online at anz.com.

13.8 What are ANZ's complaint procedures?

If ANZ makes a mistake, or our service does not meet your expectations, then we want to know. For more information please visit your local branch, ring the contact centre on 13 13 14 or contact ANZ at anz.com/your-feedback.

13.9 What should you do if you are in financial difficulty?

If you are having financial difficulty please contact us soon as possible on 1800 252 845.

Any information referred to in this section or in Schedule 2 is also available on request. If you have any questions about this section give us a call (our contact details are at the end of this document) or come into any ANZ branch. You may also request general descriptive information from us about our banking services such as, account opening procedures, cheques and bank cheques and the importance of reading the terms of your Agreement.
