

ANZ Signature Priority banking Infinite credit card rewards Signature Priority Banking customers

PT ANZ Panin Bank (ANZ) today introduces a first-of-its-kind credit card that recognises its ANZ Signature Priority Banking customers in Indonesia on two levels: it rewards them for their total banking relationship with ANZ and it offers a range of luxury lifestyle and travel rewards.

The ANZ Signature Priority Banking Infinite credit card rewards its affluent customers for their ongoing banking relationship with ANZ. Customers receive reward points that reflect the total value of their portfolio with ANZ and can be used and redeemed throughout the year. The larger a customer's portfolio, the greater the number of points awarded.

Cardholders also earn points by using their Signature Priority Banking Infinite card. These points can be redeemed for a wide range of exclusive travel-related rewards including air miles, airport lounge access and travel insurance features.

Ajay Mathur, ANZ Vice President of Consumer Banking Indonesia, said: "ANZ is focused on meeting the total needs of our affluent customers through our personalised Signature Priority Banking service. The Signature Priority Banking Infinite card rewards our customers for their continued banking relationship with us and provides an exclusive range of rewards that enhance their lifestyle in Indonesia and while travelling overseas."

Features of ANZ Infinite credit card for Signature Priority Banking include:

- Automatic lump sum of reward points awarded on the basis of a customer's portfolio value
- Travel-related rewards including earning double the reward points for overseas transactions
- Triple Mileage redemptions for ANZ frequent flyer partners including Singapore Airlines, Garuda, Cathay Pacific and Qantas
- Priority pass card to 600 executive airport lounges in 100 countries for principal cardholder
