- (c) The Bank will attempt to ensure BPAY payments are processed promptly by participants in the BPAY Scheme, however BPAY payments may be delayed in being credited to a biller in some circumstances, for example due to other participants in the BPAY Scheme not complying with any applicable BPAY obligations.  - (A) a BPAY payment which has been made from its linked Account which was not authorised;
 - (B) the possibility that it has been fraudulently induced to make a BPAY payment; or
 - (C) any delay or mistake in processing of its BPAY payment.
 - (ii) If the Customer advises the Bank that a BPAY payment made from a linked Account is unauthorised, the Customer consents (or if relevant, the Customer undertakes to obtain the End Client's consent) to the Bank obtaining from the biller any information the Bank reasonably requires to investigate the BPAY payment. Without the required consent the biller may not be permitted by Law to disclose to the Bank the information the Bank needs to investigate or rectify that BPAY payment.
 - (iii) If a BPAY payment falls within more than either of an unauthorised, fraudulent or mistaken payment, the Bank will deal with the BPAY payment in that order as the order of precedence.
- (h) The Customer acknowledges that the receipt by a biller of a mistaken or erroneous payment from another person does not constitute part or whole satisfaction of any underlying debt owed between the Customer (or the Customer's End Clients, as the case may be) and that biller.
- (i) Where BPAY payments have been made using a credit card account or a charge card account, no "chargeback" rights will be available for BPAY payments.

23.3 Mistaken BPAY payments

If the Customer discovers that a BPAY payment has been made to a person, or for an amount, which is not in accordance with the Customer's instructions (if any), and its Account was debited for the amount of that payment, the Bank will credit that amount to the Customer's Account. However, if the Customer was responsible for a mistake resulting in that payment and the Bank cannot recover the amount of that payment from the person who received it within 20 Business Days of the Bank attempting to do so, the Customer must pay that amount to the Bank.

23.4 Unauthorised BPAY payments

If the Bank effects a BPAY payment in accordance with a payment Instruction, which appeared to the Bank to be from the Customer or on its behalf, but which the Customer did not in fact authorise, the Bank will credit the Customer's Account with the amount of that unauthorised payment. However, the Customer must pay the Bank the amount of that unauthorised payment if:

- (a) the Bank cannot recover the amount from the person who received it within 20 Business Days of the Bank attempting to do so; and
- (b) the payment was made as a result of a payment Instruction which did not comply with the Bank's prescribed security procedures.

23.5 Fraudulent BPAY payments

If a BPAY payment is induced by the fraud of a person involved in the BPAY Scheme, then that person should refund the Customer the amount of the fraud-induced payment. However, if that person does not refund the Customer that amount, the Customer must bear the loss unless some other person involved in the BPAY Scheme knew of the fraud or would have detected it with reasonable diligence, in which case that person must refund the Customer the amount of the fraud-induced payment that is not refunded to the Customer by the person that induced the fraud.

23.6 BPAY Batch Payer Terms

- (a) These Batch Payer Terms:
 - (i) set out the terms and conditions on which the Bank will accept Batch Payer Directions from a Customer; and
 - (ii) apply in relation to the terms of the Agreement, including clauses 23.1 to 23.5 of this Country Schedule.

BPAY View functionality is not available for BPAY payments made using Batch Payer Directions.

- (b) Batch Payer Directions made on behalf of End Clients

Where a Customer makes Batch Payer Directions on behalf of End Clients, the Customer must:

- (i) make any disclosures to, and obtain any consents from, those End Clients that are necessary to enable:
 - (A) the Bank to comply with its obligations under BROP in regard to BPAY Payments; and
 - (B) the Customer to comply with its obligations under these Batch Payer Terms;
 - (ii) maintain a contemporaneous list of those End Clients, and provide that list to the Bank upon request;
 - (iii) maintain systems and processes which allow payments and adjustments (including credits and reversals) in relation to those End Clients to be separately identified and differentiated;
 - (iv) ensure that those End Clients make BPAY payments only for their own benefit and not on behalf of a third party;
 - (v) promptly notify the Bank if the Customer becomes aware of, or reasonably suspects, any fraudulent or illegal activity involving BPAY payments made by those End Clients;
 - (vi) ensure that each Batch Payer Direction given on behalf of an End Client is validly authorised by that End Client;
 - (vii) promptly notify the Bank if the Customer becomes aware, or reasonably suspects that a Batch Payer Direction has been erroneously submitted or processed;
 - (viii) comply with all reasonable directions from the Bank in connection with the submission of Batch Payer Directions (including any directions to stop submitting Batch Payer Directions, or to impose value or volume limits on Batch Payer Directions);
 - (ix) enter into an agreement with those End Clients for those BPAY payments, which must be consistent with these BPAY Batch Payer Terms;
 - (x) disclose to, and obtain acknowledgement from, those End Clients that:
 - (A) the Customer's relationship with its End Clients is separate to, and is not governed by, the BPAY Scheme and therefore the benefits received by payers under BROP (as it applies to BPAY Payments) may not be applicable to End Clients who make payments through the Customer; and
 - (B) the receipt by a biller of a mistaken or erroneous payment from another person does not constitute part or whole satisfaction of any underlying debt owed between the End Client and that biller;
 - (xi) having regard to its own processing times needed to prepare and submit the associated Batch Payer Directions and the principles set out in clause 23:
 - (A) notify End Clients when BPAY payments which are the subject of payment directions given by the End Clients to the Customer will be treated as having been made; and
 - (B) ensure that payment directions validly given by the Customer's End Clients prior to the Cut-off Time are incorporated into Batch Payer Directions which are submitted to the Bank on the same Business Day; and
 - (xii) without undue delay, pass on to the relevant End Client the benefit of any adjustments (including credits or reversals) received by the Customer in connection with a BPAY payment made on behalf of that End Client.
- (c) Use of BPAY Marks
- If the Customer:
- (i) makes BPAY payments on behalf of End Clients; and
 - (ii) wishes to make it known to those End Clients that BPAY payments will be made using BPAY Payments,
- then:
- (iii) the Customer must submit all proposed uses of the BPAY Marks to BPAY for its approval (such approval may be withheld in BPAY's absolute discretion);
 - (iv) if the Customer's proposed use is approved by BPAY, the Bank will grant to the Customer a non-exclusive, revocable sub-licence to use the BPAY Marks in accordance with this clause 23.6 and the Standards Manual solely for the purposes of advertising the Customer's participation in, and promotion of, BPAY Payments in the manner so approved; and
 - (v) the Bank will provide the Customer with a copy of the Standards Manual along with BPAY's contact details and notify the Customer of any change to the Standards Manual or BPAY's contact details.
- Where a sub-licence to the BPAY Marks is granted to the Customer under this clause 23.6:
- (vi) the Customer acknowledges that the Bank's ability to sub-licence the BPAY Marks is subject to the Bank's own arrangements with BPAY and the sub-licence to use the BPAY Marks will terminate immediately on:
 - (A) termination or expiry of the Bank's right to sub-licence the use of the BPAY Marks; or

- (B) termination of the Agreement or termination of agreement of the Bank to accept Batch Payer Directions from the Customer.
 - (vii) the Customer agrees that BPAY owns the BPAY Marks and further agrees:
 - (A) not to contest or in any way impair any rights of BPAY to the BPAY Marks; and
 - (B) at any time, at the Bank's request, include a statement on any packaging, promotional or advertising materials used in connection with BPAY Payments, including in electronic form, that the BPAY Marks are being used by the Customer under the control of and with the authorisation of BPAY and acknowledging BPAY's ownership of the BPAY Marks;
 - (viii) any use of the BPAY Marks by the Customer which is not in compliance with the requirements of these BPAY Batch Payer Terms and the Standards Manual, and which is not promptly discontinued following written notice from the Bank, will be a Termination Event in respect of these BPAY Batch Payer Terms and the Agreement;
 - (ix) the Customer must not license or assign to any third party the right to use any of the BPAY Marks whether by sale, consolidation, merger, amalgamation, operation of law or otherwise;
 - (x) the Customer must use the appropriate denotation or legend of trademark registration or ownership in connection with the BPAY Marks, as required or consented to by the Bank from time to time;
 - (xi) if the Customer wishes to use a denotation or legend of trade mark registration or ownership in connection with any mark (other than the BPAY Marks) used in association with or on the same printed matter as the BPAY Marks, the Customer may do so provided that:
 - (A) such use will not adversely affect the rights of BPAY in the BPAY Marks; and
 - (B) the specification for such use is notified in writing to the Bank, and the Bank provides the Customer with its written approval to that specification prior to such use;
 - (xii) the Customer must not use the BPAY Marks in such a way as to create an impression that the goods or services which the Customer offers are sponsored, produced, offered or sold by the Bank or BPAY. The Customer must not adopt "BPAY" or any other BPAY Mark as any part of the name of its business or apply them to any goods or services which the Customer offers for sale;
 - (xiii) the Customer must notify the Bank immediately on becoming aware of any infringement or potential infringement of the BPAY Marks (including any infringements by the Customer's End Clients). Where such infringement or potential infringement results in a third party bringing a claim or proceedings against the Customer or the Bank, BPAY may take over the defence of such claim or proceedings;
 - (xiv) if any claim is asserted or legal proceedings commenced against the Customer for alleged infringement of any rights held by a third party by reason of the use of the BPAY Marks, then when the Customer becomes aware of that claim or legal proceedings the Customer must:
 - (A) provide the Bank with prompt written notice of such claim or proceedings; and
 - (B) keep the Bank informed of all developments in respect of the claim or proceedings;
 - (xv) the Customer will indemnify the Bank and make good any Loss in connection with any use of BPAY Marks other than as permitted by the Agreement; and
 - (xvi) the Customer consents to the use of its name and main trading logo in lists published by the Bank, BPAY or other financial institutions who take part in BPAY Payments which identify entities who use the Batch Payer Direction functionality of BPAY Payments.
- (d) BPAY tools and functionality
- The Customer acknowledges that:
- (i) BPAY may from time to time provide the Customer with access to tools and functionality (such as software plug-ins and application programming interfaces) which facilitate submission of Batch Payer Directions; and
 - (ii) the use of such tools and functionality may be subject to separate terms and conditions entered into directly with BPAY or its licensors.
- (e) Privacy
- (i) In order to provide the Customer with services under BPAY Payments, the Bank may need to disclose the Customer's or its End Clients' Personal Information to BPAY and/or its Service Providers. If the Bank does not disclose such Personal Information to BPAY or its Service Providers, the Bank will not be able to provide the Customer with services under BPAY Payments.
 - (ii) Accordingly, the Customer agrees to the Bank disclosing to BPAY, its Service Providers and such other participants involved in
