

Trading in ANZ Securities Policy

Policy Owner: Head OR&C, Institutional Risk
Policy Level: Group

Version 1.3
15 November 2024

This policy provides a globally consistent approach to Trading in ANZ Securities and seeks to ensure ANZ requirements and all relevant legal obligations are met.

This policy puts in place systems and processes aimed at preventing insider trading or trading that could be perceived as insider trading, to:

- a. support the delivery of fair outcomes for our customers and the community and protect market integrity,
- b. support ANZ's Code of Conduct which sets the standards for the way we do business at ANZ and to successfully navigate ethical challenges that may be encountered in our work,
- c. avoid significant potential damage to ANZ's reputation that any such trading may cause,
- d. along with the Conduct Risk Framework and the Non-Financial Risk Framework, support the effective identification, action and monitoring of conduct risk.

Capitalised terms used throughout this policy have the meanings given in the Glossary.

APPLICATION

This policy applies to all ANZ Directors and all Employees and Contingent Workers of the ANZ Bank Group. To understand how this policy applies you will need to check whether you are a Restricted Person.

Obligations applicable to ExCo members, ANZGHL Company Secretary and certain others notified

12. Shareholding Guidelines: ExCo members must ensure that any requests for Pre-Trade Approval meet the requirements of the Shareholding Guidelines (i.e., Requests for Pre-Trade Approval should not take the ExCo member's eligible holdings below the minimum holding requirement).

How to obtain a Pre-Trade Approval and related provisions

13. A request for Pre-Trade Approval will be made by a Restricted Person and the decision to approve the request will be made as described in the following table:

Restricted Person:	How to apply:	Decision made by:
ANZ Directors of ANZGHL and ANZBGL, including the ANZ CEO	In writing (cc'd to the ANZGHL Company Secretary) to the Chairman of the ANZGHL Board or, if the Chairman of the ANZGHL Board is not available, the Chairman of the ANZGHL Audit Committee (or in the case of the Chairman of the ANZGHL Board, from the Chairman of the ANZGHL Audit Committee).	The Chairman of the ANZGHL Board or Chairman of the ANZGHL Audit Committee, as applicable
All other Restricted Persons (including all other ANZ Directors excluding ANZ Directors of ANZGHL and ANZBGL)	Apply using the Personal Account Dealing Platform * unless the Compliance Control Room directs that an alternative platform or process be used. For ANZ Directors of ANZGHL subsidiaries (excluding ANZBGL), apply via corp.govem@anz.com. The Company Secretary will seek written Pre-Trade Approval on your behalf and advise the outcome to you.  For ANZ Directors of a Controlled Entity that is not an ANZGHL subsidiary, apply via anzcontrolroom@anz.com	Compliance Control Room

14. A request for any Pre-Trade Approval can be approved or declined by ANZ at its sole discretion, without giving any reasons, and can be withdrawn at any time if new information becomes known or there is a change in circumstances. ANZ's decision to decline a Pre-Trade Approval request is final and binding. Where a request is declined, the outcome is considered confidential information and must not be disclosed.
15. Any Pre-Trade Approval granted is not an endorsement of the proposed Trade. The person doing the Trading is individually responsible for their investment decisions and compliance with insider trading laws. Before Trading, individuals should consider carefully whether they are in possession of any Inside Information, and if in any doubt, they should not Trade. If an individual comes into possession of Inside Information after receiving Pre-Trade Approval, the individual must not Trade despite having received the Pre-Trade Approval.
16. A Pre-Trade Approval is valid only during the Effective Period. If the order is not executed within the Effective Period, the Restricted Person must submit a new Pre-Trade Approval request to ensure a valid Pre-Trade Approval has been obtained when the order is executed. This also applies to limit orders.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES TRADING APPLICATIONS

Background

This section sets out the special circumstances in which disposal of ANZ Securities by Restricted Persons (or their Associated Persons) that was previously declined or is otherwise prohibited by this policy may be permitted with prior written approval.

Policy Statements

17. A Special Circumstances Trading Application may be sought where a need arises to dispose ANZ Securities:

- a. during a Blackout Period;
- b. during the 30-day minimum holding period described in section 8b; or
- c. where a Pre-Trade Approval request has been declined,

as a result of severe financial hardship, a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied otherwise than by disposing of ANZ Securities, or in other exceptional circumstances.

18. A Special Circumstances Trading Application should be made by a Restricted Person and the decision to approve the request will be made as described in the following table:

Restricted Person:	How to apply:	Decision made by:
ANZ Directors of ANZGHL and ANZBGL, including the ANZ CEO	In writing (cc'd to the ANZGHL Company Secretary) to the Chairman of the ANZGHL Board or, if the Chairman of the ANZGHL Board is not available, the Chairman of the ANZGHL Audit Committee (or in the case of the Chairman of the ANZGHL Board, from the Chairman of the ANZGHL Audit Committee).	The Chairman of the ANZGHL Board or Chairman of the ANZGHL Audit Committee, as applicable
All other Restricted Persons (including all other ANZ Directors excluding ANZ Directors of ANZGHL and ANZBGL)	Apply using the Personal Account Dealing Platform * unless the Compliance Control Room directs that an alternative platform or process be used. For ANZ Directors of ANZGHL subsidiaries (excluding ANZBGL), apply via corpgovemelb@anz.com. The Company Secretary will seek written Pre-Trade Approval on your behalf and advise the outcome to you.  For ANZ Directors of a Controlled Entity that is not an ANZGHL subsidiary, apply via anzcontrolroom@anz.com	Line Manager and Compliance Control Room

19. In considering a Special Circumstances Trading Application, ANZ will have regard to:

- a. whether the disposal would be likely to affect ANZ's interest or reputation;
- b. whether there is any actual or perceived Conflict of Interest;
- c. whether the Restricted Person is in possession of Inside Information; and
- d. all other relevant factors, including the nature of the exceptional circumstances outlined in the applicant's request.

TRADING IN ANZ SECURITIES POLICY

20. In the case of a Special Circumstances Trading Application by an Employee or Contingent Worker other than the ANZ CEO, the line manager of the applicant will be asked through the Personal Account Dealing Platform to endorse the application and confirm that they are not aware of any actual or perceived Conflict of Interest in connection with the application.
21. A decision with respect to a Special Circumstances Trading Application will generally be provided in writing within 4 Business Days of receipt of the request. Approvals will not be granted retrospectively, and if an application is declined, that decision is final and binding on the person submitting the application. ANZ reserves the right not to give a reason for declining the application.
22. Where a Special Circumstances Trading Application is approved, the approval will be valid only for Trading during the Effective Period.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ANZ DIRECTORS

All ANZ Directors should be aware of their obligations arising from this policy and abide by these obligations, and for ANZ Directors of ANZGHL and ANZBGL in conjunction with their obligations under the ANZ Non-Executive Directors Code of Conduct.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALL EMPLOYEES AND CONTINGENT WORKERS

All Employees and Contingent Workers should be aware of their obligations arising from this policy and abide by those obligations in conjunction with their obligations under the ANZ Code of Conduct. In addition, all Employees and Contingent Workers must comply with their obligations under the ANZ Code of Conduct to declare upon commencement of employment and acknowledge annually that they understand the principles of the ANZ Code of Conduct (including in relation to this policy), have complied with them in the previous 12 months, and agree to comply with them going forward.

All Employees and Contingent Workers who are Restricted Persons must:

- obtain and review a copy of the Privacy Statement; and
- provide a copy of the Privacy Statement to their Associated Persons for their review.

Employees and Contingent Workers who are Restricted Persons are required to provide certain certifications to this effect and agree to the matters set out in the Privacy Statement on their own behalf and on behalf of their Associated Persons when they first use the Personal Account Dealing Platform and prior to making a Pre-Trade Approval request through the Personal Account Dealing Platform.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF LINE MANAGERS

Line managers of Employees and Contingent Workers will be required to review any Special Circumstances Trading Applications from their direct reports to trade in ANZ Securities. Line managers should review and assess whether there is an actual or perceived Conflict of Interest should the Restricted Person transact in ANZ Securities, considering all relevant facts and circumstances. Line managers should not endorse a Special Circumstances Trading Application which would lead to a Conflict of Interest with the requesting Employee's or Contingent Worker's role at ANZ. A line manager may consider endorsing the Special Circumstances Trading Application request if no Conflict of Interest exists. In the case that the Line Manager is absent (or otherwise unable to fulfil their duties), the above listed responsibilities are transferred to the Individuals Skip Line Manager in accordance with the ANZ Peoplesoft hierarchy.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE TEAM

The Corporate Governance team is responsible for record keeping in relation to Pre-Trade Approval applications and decisions in respect of ANZ Directors of ANZGHL and its subsidiaries.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMPLIANCE CONTROL ROOM

The Compliance Control Room is responsible for:

- Identification and allocation of Employees and Continent Workers known as “Restricted Persons”;
- Record keeping of all Pre-Trade Approval applications and outcomes decisions other than with respect to ANZ Directors;
- Pre-Trade Approval enforcement and monitoring, including:
 - actively monitoring Trading in ANZ Securities by ExCo members to meet GN27 obligations; and
 - actively monitoring Restricted Persons for compliance with this policy, any specific business unit requirements and any specific country requirements;
- Ensuring that the current version of this policy is available on the ANZ intranet;
