Letter of Consent for providing information to a third party

Customer Name: (Customer)

Address:

By signing this letter, the Customer hereby:

1. agrees and authorises ANZ to disclose any information regarding the Customer (including, without limitation, relating to any of its transactions, its Tax Identification Number (if applicable), account balance, total amount annual interest and/or dividends, its financial condition, its account(s)) to any parties or persons (including, without limitation, regulatory bodies, taxation authorities, government agencies, law enforcement bodies and courts, whether local or foreign) when required to do so in accordance with the prevailing laws and/or disclosure obligations ANZ may have under an agreement with local or foreign regulators, whether the disclosure is made directly or through one of ANZ's subsidiaries or affiliates. The aforementioned disclosure includes, without limitation, the disclosure of any information required for compliance with ANZ's obligations with regards to the United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act;
2. acknowledges and agrees that the authority to disclose the information under paragraph 1 continues in full force and effect until such time as the Customer provides 30 days prior written notice to ANZ in writing that it revokes such consent; and
3. acknowledges and agrees that where the Customer revokes its consent under paragraph 2, ANZ may close any or all of the Customer's accounts with ANZ in writing with immediate effect should the revocation of your consent set out in paragraph 1 above result in ANZ being in breach of any obligation to make disclosure under the requirements of any local or foreign law or regulation binding on ANZ or any ANZ Group member, or pursuant to an agreement between ANZ and a revenue authority or government agency (whether local or foreign).
4. releases ANZ from any claim, debt, demand, action, suit, claim for account, cause of action, complaint, liability, proceeding, cost or expense of whatsoever kind and nature, howsoever and whenever arising, which may be brought or commenced by the Customer against ANZ as a result of ANZ closing the Customer's accounts with ANZ under paragraph 3.
