

Owner Builders must provide evidence of Builders Insurance

As with all construction loans, evidence of Builders Insurance must be provided during the application process. Builders Insurance, also commonly known as Construction Insurance, covers the Owner Builder for the main risks encountered during the building process, for example damage, theft and/or public liability/third party personal injury cover.

More information

- Please refer to the Construction Loans section in our Credit & Process Requirements guide on www.anz-originator.com > Reference Material
-

top