ANZ TRADE TERMS

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Terms applying

- (a) These ANZ Trade Terms and each relevant Trade Country Addendum (together, the Terms) apply to all Trade Products used by, or provided by ANZ to, a Customer unless agreed otherwise in writing by ANZ.
- (b) To the extent that you require clarification in respect of these Terms or copies of the ICC Rules to which certain provisions of the Terms refer, please refer your inquiry to your relevant ANZ contact point.

1.2 Applications and forms

- (a) The Customer will apply or request to use a Trade Product by delivering to ANZ an application or request (as applicable):
 - (1) in a format specified or approved by ANZ from time to time;
 - (2) completed to the satisfaction of ANZ; and
 - (3) signed or made by one or more Authorised Representatives.
- (b) The Customer will also execute and deliver to ANZ any other documents ANZ may require in relation to a Trade Product.
- (c) ANZ will promptly notify the Customer if it will not accept and act upon an application or request of the Customer to use a Trade Product.

1.3 Uncommitted

Unless agreed otherwise in writing by ANZ, all Trade Products are provided to the Customer on an uncommitted basis and nothing in any Trade Agreement, the satisfaction of all or any requirements in it or any negotiations between the parties before the Trade Product is utilised obliges:

- (a) the Customer to use any Trade Product;
- (b) ANZ to accept and act upon the Customer's request to use a Trade Product or give the Customer any reasons for refusing to do so; or
- (c) ANZ to continue to make any Trade Product available to the Customer; and ANZ or the Customer may, at any time, terminate, cancel or withdraw the provision of the Trade Product.

1.4 Exchange rate movements

- (a) If the Customer uses a Trade Product in one currency and the Customer's receivables are in another currency and the exchange rate of the currencies fluctuates, the Customer may be exposed to exchange rate risk.
- (b) The Customer is solely responsible for monitoring and managing exchange rate risk and protecting itself against adverse exchange rate movements.
- (c) The Customer will, if required by ANZ, provide extra security or payment (including by way of cash cover) or reduce the drawn amount of the Trade Product if exchange rate fluctuations have caused the value of security provided or a payment made to ANZ to fall or actual or contingent payment obligations owed to ANZ to increase relative to the drawn amount of or limit provided for the Trade Product.

2. IMPORT CREDITS

2.1 Issuance

- (a) Each Import Credit will be irrevocable and issued subject to UCP and may be issued subject to URR and otherwise in a form and substance acceptable to ANZ.
- (b) ANZ is not obliged to check or ensure the accuracy of any information supplied to it for inclusion in any Import Credit.
- (c) ANZ will send a copy of each Import Credit to the Customer as soon as is practical after it is issued.
- (d) The Customer is solely responsible for ensuring that the terms of an Import Credit are correct and meet its requirements.
- (e) The Customer must notify ANZ of any objection to the Import Credit terms within 2 Business Days after receiving its copy of the Import Credit. If it does not raise any objection within that period, it will be deemed that the Customer is completely satisfied with the terms of the Import Credit and it waives any right to raise objections to the form of the Import Credit.

2.2 Third Party Import Credits

ANZ may issue, at the Customer's request, an Import Credit to facilitate the business transactions of another party with the beneficiary and with that other party named as the applicant or contracting party in that Import Credit. If ANZ does so, the Customer's reimbursement obligations to ANZ will still apply.

2.3 Correspondent Bank

- (a) The Customer may request that ANZ use a specified Advising bank or Nominated bank in respect of an Import Credit transaction.
- (b) However, the Customer agrees that ANZ may elect to use a different or second Advising bank or Nominated bank where it determines (acting reasonably) that such an election is necessary to proceed with the Customer's requested transaction.

2.4 Separate transaction

The Customer acknowledges that an Import Credit is by its nature a separate transaction from any contract between the Customer and any other party on which the Import Credit may be based. As such, ANZ is not required to:

- (a) notify the Customer that a presentation has been received or prior to honouring an Import Credit;
- (b) make reference to, enquiry into or to take account of statements or instructions from the Customer or any other party or any defence or claims the Customer may have against the Presenter; or
- (c) notify the Customer that a presentation is not compliant prior to dishonour.

2.5 Compliant presentation

- (a) ANZ will honour all presentations complying with the terms of the Import Credit.
- (b) If ANZ has restricted the negotiation of the Import Credit to its Correspondent Bank, ANZ may accept and pay all drafts drawn or purported to be drawn on that Correspondent Bank.

2.6 Non-compliant presentation

- (a) ANZ may refuse to honour any non-complying presentation under the Import Credit.
- (b) If ANZ notifies the Customer of discrepancies, the Customer must promptly notify ANZ in writing within 2 Business Days of whether or not it waives them. If the Customer does not do so, ANZ may at any time after that date return the Trade Documents to the Presenter.
- (c) Any decision by ANZ to seek instructions from the Customer regarding discrepancies at any time does not oblige ANZ to seek instructions at any other time in respect of any other discrepancies.
- (d) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that where it requests ANZ to authorise the release or delivery of the Goods to it and notwithstanding any discrepancies that may appear in the presentation, the Customer must reimburse ANZ in respect of the relevant Import Credit in accordance with these Terms.

2.7 Responsibility

ANZ, its Correspondent Banks and agents are not liable or responsible for:

- (a) the shippers' charges on the Goods;
- (b) obtaining any governmental authorisation, licence or permit necessary or appropriate in connection with these Terms and or the Import Credit;
- (c) any impossibility or illegality in respect of the Import Credit or any other agreement as result of any act of any Authority or court, or any Law, affecting these Terms or the Import Credit; or
- (d) any variations in the instructions agreed to by ANZ or any other bank relating to the Import Credit necessitated by the Law and/or commercial practice of the country in which any draft is negotiated or presented for acceptance or for payment.

2.8 Insurance

- (a) If it is the Customer's responsibility to insure the Goods or cause the Goods to be insured, the Customer will insure them or cause them to be insured for loss and damage and for an amount that a prudent and reasonable owner of the Goods would effect and maintain with a reputable insurance company.
- (b) The Customer will give a copy of the insurance policy and all receipts for current premiums to ANZ within 3 Business Days of being requested by ANZ to do so.
- (c) If the Customer fails to comply with this clause, ANZ may take out and maintain, at the Customer's expense, insurance considered appropriate by it.

2.9 Reimbursement

- (a) The Customer will pay to ANZ an amount equal to and in the same currency as all amounts paid by ANZ in connection with an Import Credit, on the day on which ANZ makes or is required to or deemed to make that payment.
- (b) If ANZ specifies, the Customer will, on or shortly before the date on which ANZ makes (or is likely to make) a payment under an Import Credit, pay to ANZ a sum equal to such payment. ANZ may hold all or part of such sum in an account in ANZ's name, under ANZ's sole control and/or apply all or part of such sum against the Customer's reimbursement obligations to ANZ.

3. IMPORT COLLECTIONS

3.1 ICC rules

Each Collection (either documentary or clean) will be subject to URC.

3.2 Collecting bank

- (a) ANZ may hold the Trade Documents until acceptance or reimbursement of the relevant Drafts, or payment, by the Customer; and
- (b) ANZ will outline in the correspondence to the Customer attached to the import Collection any additional terms applicable to any import Collection.

3.3 Guarantee (Aval)

- (a) ANZ may, at the Customer's request, add its guarantee (aval) to a Draft which the Customer has first accepted.
- (b) The Customer must pay ANZ the face value amount of the guaranteed (avalised) Draft on its maturity date.
- (c) If the Customer dishonours the Draft, the Customer must pay ANZ interest calculated at the interest rate agreed in or in accordance with the Trade Agreement from the time of dishonour until payment by the Customer of the face value amount of the Draft to ANZ and all charges incurred by ANZ.
- (d) The Customer indemnifies, and must pay to ANZ on demand, an amount equal to all reasonable costs or losses which ANZ may incur in guaranteeing payment of, or adding its guarantee (aval) to, the Draft (other than where the costs or losses are due to the negligence, fraud or wilful default of ANZ, its employees, officers, contractors, agents or any receiver appointed by ANZ).
- (e) The Customer absolutely, irrevocably and unconditionally authorises ANZ to pay immediately on any demand made pursuant to that (avalised) Draft on its maturity date (without any prior notice to the Customer).
- (f) ANZ will not be under any obligation to enquire whether any claim, demand or drawing by the exporter is properly made or whether the Customer disputes the validity of any such claim by the exporter.
- (g) Any action taken by ANZ in good faith pursuant to this clause will bind the Customer in respect of such action.

4.3 Pledge obligations

The Customer must:

- (a) have good title to each Pledged Asset and ensure that no person (other than ANZ) at any time has any Encumbrance or other interest in (or claim over) any Pledged Assets while the Pledge over that Pledged Assets exists;

4.4 Authority to perfect and dispose

The Customer irrevocably authorises (but does not oblige) ANZ (acting reasonably) and its agents and nominees to execute all documents and do all other acts and things ANZ considers necessary or desirable, to perfect the Pledge or to effect any disposal of any Pledged Assets, or to enforce any rights to which the Customer or ANZ is entitled in connection with any Pledged Assets.

4.5 Action on default

- (a) If the Customer fails to pay or discharge any of the Import Obligations when due or is otherwise in breach of its obligations under these Terms, ANZ may deal with and take any action in relation to any Pledged Assets, including selling, disposing, transporting, warehousing, landing or insuring any Pledged Assets or making a claim on any insurance policy.
- (b) The Customer must reimburse ANZ on demand in relation to any reasonable cost or expense ANZ incurs in relation

- (d) The Customer will remain liable for and must pay any deficiency that may remain owing to ANZ after the sale or disposal of the Pledged Assets.

4.6 Trust Receipt

If, prior to the payment in full of the Import Obligations, ANZ releases any Pledged Assets to, or to the order of, the Customer, whether or not a Trust Receipt is signed and delivered to ANZ for that release the Customer will hold those Pledged Assets and any proceeds of their sale on trust for ANZ and failing that will hold them as ANZ's fiduciary and/or agent and in each case for ANZ's sole benefit (unless otherwise agreed by ANZ in writing) and the Customer agrees that:

- (a) those Pledged Assets are pledged to ANZ upon the terms of these Terms and that the Pledge will continue notwithstanding the release of those Pledged Assets by ANZ to the Customer;
- (b) those Pledged Assets are held at all times to the order of ANZ but at the expense and at the risk of the Customer; and

 - (j) upon sale of any of those Pledged Assets:
 - (1) to promptly get in, recover and receive the sale proceeds in accordance with the contract of sale and remit to ANZ all sale proceeds immediately on receipt without set-off or deduction and without intermingling those proceeds with other moneys;

and

- (2) to hold all rights, title and interest in, and claims for payment under, the contract of sale and the proceeds from receipt until payment to ANZ in trust for ANZ and failing that will hold them as ANZ's fiduciary and/or agent and in each case for ANZ's sole benefit;

- (a) The Customer may request ANZ to provide a Carrier with a Shipping Guarantee or authority to facilitate the release by the Carrier of any Goods or the issuance of a duplicate set of the original Bills of Lading.
- (b) If ANZ agrees to provide a Shipping Guarantee to a Carrier, ANZ will only do so if the form of Shipping Guarantee required by the Carrier is in a form acceptable to it.

5.2 Release

The Customer must ensure that the relevant Carrier releases ANZ from the Shipping Guarantee in a manner satisfactory to ANZ and that ANZ's liability under the Shipping Guarantee is extinguished as soon as possible.

6.3 Full recourse

The Customer's liability to ANZ under any BtB Import Credit or FtB Import Credit is not dependent upon whether payment can or cannot be obtained under the Master Credit and ANZ retains full recourse to the Customer in respect of that liability.

6.4 Sufficiency of documents

If ANZ pays a drawing under any BtB Import Credit or FtB Import Credit that payment will not constitute any warranty or representation by ANZ that the Trade Documents received by ANZ under the BtB Import Credit or FtB Import Credit, with or without the substitution of invoices and possibly other documents supplied by the Customer, are sufficient to form a set of fully compliant Trade Documents for the purpose of obtaining payment under the Master Credit.

- (c) If ANZ does not Finance an Export Credit in respect of which it has provided a Payment Undertaking:
 - (1) ANZ will pay the Customer the drawing amount when funds are received from the Issuing bank and the Confirming bank (if any) in accordance with the Export Credit reimbursement terms; or
 - (2) if the Issuing bank and the Confirming bank (if any) does not honour a complying presentation, ANZ will credit the account nominated in writing by the Customer with the drawing amount on the maturity date of the Export Credit drawing, less any unpaid fees or charges due and payable to ANZ on the maturity date of the Export Credit drawing.

7.4 Financing Export Credit with Payment Undertaking

- (a) When the Customer presents Trade Documents called for under the Export Credit, it may request ANZ to Finance them.
- (b) If ANZ Finances Compliant Trade Documents of an Export Credit in respect of which it has provided a Payment Undertaking, ANZ will pay the Export Credit drawing(s) amount into the Customer's nominated account less:
 - (1) interest agreed in writing by ANZ and the Customer before ANZ Finances (unless ANZ has agreed with the Customer in writing, or the Export Credit states, that interest will be paid separately); and
 - (2) any unpaid fees due and payable to ANZ.
- (c) Any Payment Undertaking provided for an Export Credit will end upon the Customer's account being credited with the Financing proceeds for that Export Credit and ANZ will not be obliged to make any other payment to the Customer.

- (d) If ANZ agrees to the Customer's request for post acceptance Finance and interest is agreed, ANZ will effect the Financing and credit the Customer's nominated account with the proceeds (less interest, fees, costs and expenses owed to ANZ under any relevant Trade Agreement) not later than the Business Day following receipt of the Document Acceptance.

7.6 Recourse

PAYMENT UNDERTAKING WITH SUBSEQUENT FINANCING OR PAYMENT UNDERTAKING WITHOUT SUBSEQUENT FINANCING

- (a) If ANZ:
 - (1) provides a Payment Undertaking for, and then Finances the Compliant Trade Documents of that Export Credit, or
 - (2) provides a Payment Undertaking for an Export Credit but which it does not Finance, in the case of (1) above, both the Payment Undertaking and subsequent Financing, and in the case of (2) above, the Payment Undertaking, are in each case, provided on a limited recourse basis as set out in this subclauses (b) and (c) below.

- (b) ANZ will not have any recourse to the Customer where the Issuing bank and the Confirming bank (if any) are prevented from, or unable to, make payment because of:

 - (2) Transfer and Economic Risk(s) in the country(ies) of the Issuing bank and the Confirming bank (if any);

- (2) if ANZ has paid an amount under the Payment Undertaking or advanced funds under the Financing, ANZ has full recourse to the Customer on demand for the amount calculated in accordance with subclause (f) and specified in the demand; and in either case, ANZ is under no obligation to provide the Customer with any further Payment Undertakings or provide Financing in respect of any Exports Credits.

FINANCING WITHOUT PAYMENT UNDERTAKING

- (d) Unless otherwise agreed in writing with ANZ, if ANZ has Financed an Export Credit without a Payment Undertaking, the Financing is provided to the Customer on a full recourse basis in all circumstances and without exceptions. The Customer agrees to repay ANZ on demand, and in any event by a date not later than the maturity date of the relevant Export Credit or Draft, the full amount of the Financing provided to the Customer, together with any unpaid interest and fees and reasonable costs and expenses which ANZ may incur or be liable for in connection with the Financing.
- (e) If ANZ agrees in writing to provide Financing to the Customer without a Payment Undertaking on a limited recourse basis, the Customer agrees that:

 - (2) any unpaid interest on those amounts; and
 - (3) any losses, or reasonable costs ANZ suffers or incurs as a result of the Recourse Event occurring other than where the costs are incurred or the loss is due to the negligence, fraud or wilful default of ANZ, its employees, officers, contractors or agents or any receiver appointed by ANZ over the assets of the Customer.
- (g) The Customer will notify ANZ promptly in writing if the Customer is aware that a Recourse Event has occurred or is likely to occur and the details of that Recourse Event.

- (f) ANZ may issue, at the Customer's request, an Instrument to facilitate the business transactions of another party with the beneficiary and with that other party named as the applicant or contracting party in that Instrument. 9.3 Separate transaction

The Customer acknowledges that an Instrument is by its nature a separate transaction from any contract between the Customer and any other party on which the Instrument may be based. As such, ANZ is not required:

- (a) unless the terms of an Instrument states otherwise, to notify the Customer when it receives a demand or prior to paying a demand or accepting drafts, claims or drawings under the Instrument;
- (b) to make reference to, enquiry of or to take account of statements or instructions from the Customer or any other party;

9.7 Non-compliant demand

- (a) ANZ may refuse to pay and may reject any demand or document presented to ANZ under the Instrument, if any such demand or document does not comply with the Instrument terms.
- (b) ANZ does not have to seek the Customer's waiver of any discrepancies before refusing to pay the demand. Any decision by ANZ to seek a waiver of discrepancies does not oblige ANZ to seek a waiver of other discrepancies at any other time.

9.8 Payment without demand

ANZ may, at any time, discharge all its obligations under an Instrument by paying, whether or not ANZ has received a demand, the undrawn amount of the Instrument (or such lesser amount that the beneficiary requires) to the beneficiary and the Customer's reimbursement obligations to ANZ will still apply.

ANZ and its Correspondent Banks reserve the right to determine whether or not to participate in any Dispute. The Customer agrees to waive its rights (if any) to claim any damages against ANZ and/or its Correspondent Bank;
