The Bank may (but shall not be obliged to) discharge its obligations with respect to such funds by paying to the Customer, at any time (whether before or after maturity), such funds in any other currency at any exchange rate and in any manner as the Bank may determine at its discretion. The Customer agrees that any such payment shall constitute good, valid and complete discharge of the Bank's obligations to the Customer with respect to such funds;
  - (iii) without prejudice to Conditions 3.3(b) (i) and (ii) above, the Customer acknowledges that all deposits in Foreign Currency Accounts are subject to fluctuations in prevailing market conditions which upon maturity will result in either gains or losses to earnings and/or investments; and
  - (iv) the Customer acknowledges that opening of any Foreign Currency Account may be subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Bank from time to time.

Dishonoured cheques may be returned by post to the Customer, at its last known address, at the Customer's own risk and expense;
  - (iv) the Bank may agree with relevant banks or the clearing house to vary procedures and timelines relating to the collection of returned cheques or any other item to the extent permitted by applicable Law. The Bank is not responsible for actions taken by such banks (or its agents) or the clearing house or for any loss or destruction of any such item in possession of such banks or the clearing house or while in transit. The Customer agrees to use reasonable efforts to assist the Bank in locating or obtaining replacement of such items lost while in the Bank's possession;
  - (v) the Customer shall immediately notify the Bank if it becomes aware that any cheque (whether completed or in blank) is lost or stolen. The Customer shall not use any Account to allow any third party to issue cheques or otherwise use such Account unless specifically agreed to in writing by the Bank. However, if any such returned cheque is stolen, lost in transit or misplaced by the drawee bank or the Correspondent then the Bank will not be under any obligation to return that unpaid cheque to the Customer. In such cases, the Bank's statement intimating the non-payment and the loss of the returned cheque will be final and binding on the Customer; and
  - (viii) the Customer agrees and confirms that it will be the Customer's obligation to resolve any discrepancy that may be caused by the drawee bank issuing a realisation certificate in respect of an item for which the Bank or its Correspondent may have received intimation that the said cheque/draft has been returned unpaid, or otherwise remains outstanding.
- (c) Receipts. In respect of any funds received by the Bank for the account of the Customer:
- (i) unless otherwise notified by the Bank to the Customer, any such funds shall be made available for use by the Customer in accordance with the Bank's usual policy and practice for receipt of funds;
  - (ii) unless otherwise instructed by the Customer, the Bank may deposit such funds into any of the Customer's Accounts. If any funds are in a currency in which the Customer does not have an Account, the Bank may, in its absolute discretion either (A) open a new Account in such currency for crediting such funds or (B) convert the sum received into a currency in which the Customer has an Account at the Applicable Rate;

  - (iv) the Bank will process any Instructions on the payment date specified by the Customer, provided the Instruction has been received by the Bank prior to the relevant Cut-off Time, the payment is within any processing limits set by the Bank or threshold or authorisation limits set by the Customer (where applicable converted into the relevant currency at the Applicable Rate) and the Account has sufficient Cleared Funds or adequate credit arrangements in place to make the payment specified in the Instruction;
  - (v) if an Instruction is received on or specifies a payment date falling on a non-Business Day, the payment will be processed on the next Business Day, unless otherwise agreed between the Bank and the Customer;
  - (vi) the Bank is, on receipt of an Instruction, authorised to debit the relevant Account for the amount of the payment and to deduct any applicable commission, fees, charges and expenses;
  - (vii) unless specified by the Customer in any Instruction, the Bank may determine the order of priority of any payment in any Instruction;
  - (viii) notwithstanding any Instruction by the Customer to the contrary, the Bank reserves the right to use any Third Party System and any Third Party in the execution of any funds transfer Instruction and may otherwise use any means of executing the funds transfer Instruction which the Bank deems reasonable in the circumstances;

The Bank has no control over such commissions, fees or charges. They may either be: (1) paid by the payee separately or be deducted by the Correspondent from the funds paid to the payee's account. Where such a deduction is made by the Correspondent, the payee will receive funds less than the value amount specified in the Instruction; or (2) paid by the Customer to the Bank in accordance with the Fee Schedule;
  - (C) a Correspondent may at any time convert a payment to its own preferred currency before effecting the payment; and

- (x) in connection with any funds transfer Instruction, the Bank and any Third Party may rely upon the identifying number of the beneficiary, the beneficiary's bank or any Third Party included in the funds transfer Instruction. Further, the Customer acknowledges that the beneficiary's bank may make payment on the basis of such identifying number even if it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary, and accordingly agrees that the Customer shall be responsible for the consequences of any inconsistency between the name and identifying number of any party in such funds transfer Instruction;
- (xi) the Customer declares and undertakes to the Bank that any payment processed by the Bank in accordance with any Instruction, will not breach any Law, Sanction or requirement of any competent Authority or any term of the Agreement, and that the Customer will not make or allow to be made any payment for any illegal or fraudulent purpose.
- (b) Cheque Services. Where the Bank has agreed to provide the Customer with cheque services in respect of an Account:
- (i) the Bank shall provide cheques to the Customer upon request of the Customer. The Customer acknowledges that if any third party becomes a holder of a cheque, it may be entitled to enforce payment against the Bank;
  - (ii) if the Customer requests the Bank to stop or cancel any Instrument:
    - (A) the Bank may (1) in its sole discretion determine whether to stop or cancel that Instrument or (2) if the Bank is able to determine that payment and processing of that Instrument has not yet been completed, the Bank shall use best efforts to stop or cancel, as applicable, that Instrument and will debit any applicable charges for doing so to the Customer's Accounts and, if that Bank Instrument is a Bank Cheque and the Bank does stop or cancel that Bank Cheque, it will credit the value of that Bank Cheque to the Customer's nominated Account; and
    - (B) if the Bank has met or elects to meet a payment on any Instrument notwithstanding the request from the Customer to stop or cancel the Instrument (whether due to loss, theft or any other reason), the Customer is responsible for and authorises the Bank to debit the Customer's nominated Account for any amount which has previously been credited to the Customer;
- (C) the Customer shall promptly notify the Bank to cancel any such request if and when the reason for such request ceases to exist;
  - (D) unless the Customer cancels that request by earlier written notice to the Bank, any such request shall expire and be of no further effect on the earlier to occur of (1) the payment or cancellation of the Instrument (2) the closing of the Account upon which the Instrument is drawn (3) the date that is sixty days after the transfer of the Account upon which the Instrument is drawn to another branch of the Bank and (4) the date that is six months from the date such request was made;
- (iii) if the Bank agrees to issue a demand draft on behalf of the Customer and the currency of such demand draft is different from the currency of the relevant Account, the amount of funds debited from the relevant Account shall be determined by converting the amount of such demand draft into the currency of the relevant Account at the Applicable Rate. Any charges incurred in connection with the issue of such demand draft or such conversion will be for the account of the Customer; and
- (iv) the Customer acknowledges that any cheque service is subject to any threshold or authorisation limits set by the Customer (where applicable, converted into the relevant currency at the Applicable Rate).

Bank will procure transfer of funds between the Participating Account(s) and the Master Account;

- (b) if the Accounts subject to the Sweep Service are not denominated in the same currencies, the Applicable Rate will be applied to any foreign exchange conversion;
- (c) if the Bank is preadvised of a credit or debit to an Account, regardless of whether such preadvice ultimately proves to be correct, the Bank may but need not anticipate the preadvised transaction in calculating the funds to be transferred pursuant to the Sweep Service without liability therefor. A debit to an Account received subsequent to the corresponding Cut-off Time may result in an end-of-day overdraft in such Account, and the Customer shall be liable for the repayment of such overdraft together with interest. A credit to an Account received subsequent to the corresponding Cut-off Time may result in funds being left in the Account at the end-of-day; and
